

NATHANIEL DAVIS.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 198.]

MARCH 5, 1840.

Mr. STRONG, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Nathaniel Davis, beg leave to report:

That they concur in and adopt the following report, made by the Committee on Invalid Pensions, in the 25th Congress:

"That it is proved by the oath of the petitioner, and by the deposition of John B. Hogan, late deputy quartermaster general of the 20th regiment, of infantry, that he enlisted as a soldier in 1812, and was then a sound and healthy man; that the company to which he belonged marched to the frontier of Niagara. The petitioner states that, on the 24th of September, 1812, while executing the orders of the orderly sergeant, in quelling a riot in the camp, he received a kick in the abdomen from one of the rioters, which produced so serious and violent a rupture that he was unable to do duty; that he remained in the army until the 21st day of March, 1814, when he was discharged, as being unable, from his wound, to do military duty.

"The abovenamed J. B. Hogan states that the petitioner was discharged in consequence of a rupture; that he was fully aware of his disability when he was discharged, but does not know exactly the manner that he incurred the injury.

"The certificate of Dr. Benjamin King, assistant surgeon, is, that his disability is total.

"The committee consider the petitioner entitled to a full pension, and report a bill accordingly."

Blair & Rives, printers.

NATHANIEL DAVIS

MARCH 5, 1840.

REPORT:

Mr. Stroze, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Nathaniel Davis, beg leave to report:

That they concur in and adopt the following report, made by the Committee on Invalid Pensions in the 28th Congress:

"That it is proved by the oath of the petitioner, and by the deposition of John B. Hogan, late deputy quartermaster general of the 20th regiment of infantry, that he enlisted as a soldier in 1812, and was then a sound and healthy man; that the company to which he belonged marched to the frontier of Niagara. The petitioner states that, on the 24th of September, 1812, while executing the orders of the orderly sergeant in quelling a riot in the camp, he received a kick in the abdomen from one of the rioters which produced so serious and violent a rupture that he was unable to do duty; that he remained in the army until the 31st day of March, 1814, when he was discharged, as being unable, from his wound, to do military duty."

"The above named J. B. Hogan states that the petitioner was discharged in consequence of a rupture; that he was fully aware of his disability when he was discharged, but does not know exactly the manner that he incurred the injury."

"The certificate of Dr. Benjamin King, assistant surgeon, is, that his disability is total."

"The committee consider the petitioner entitled to a full pension, and report a bill accordingly."

Blair & Rives, printers.